

THE LANGUAGE FLAGSHIP

Creating Global Professionals

Hunter College
CHINESE FLAGSHIP CENTER

The Taiwan Overseas Flagship – 2021 Spring

for Fall 2020-Spring 2021 Cohort (January 8 – May 7)

Staffing

- Co-Site Directors oversee all aspects of the Overseas Center, including academics, internships, student life, advising, outreach, and professional development
- Resident Director is in charge of student life matters and reports to the Co-Site Directors regarding student life issues
- Internship Coordinator oversees the internship phase for its duration and conducts site visits
- All full-time and part-time faculty will offer small group and one-on-one instruction supervised by Co-Site Directors

Coursework

- CHIN 49806 - In-Service Internship (6 credits)
- CHIN 40107 - NYMU Domain Direct Enrollment (3 credits)
- CHIN 40113 - Social and Political Affairs Studies in Chinese (3 credits)

Additional Academic Work

- 3 hours of tutoring per week based on a student's needs

Internship

- Students complete their part-time internships (three days a week) virtually
- The internship supervisors at work provide weekly feedback to students
- Students are required to interact with their co-workers daily virtually
- Students attend a weekly internship meeting, led by the Internship Coordinator
- Students' grades will be determined by their internship supervisor and the Taiwan Center Internship Coordinator

Cultural Activities

- Once a week, students will take part in activities such as meditation, calligraphy, Tai Chi, field trips to the Mao Kong Tea House and to national museums in Taipei, cooking lessons for the Taiwanese popular breakfast (Dan4 Bing3), Taiwanese movie nights, the sharing of videos about Taiwanese daily life, lectures on Taiwanese art, history, and culture
- Students have NYMU pen pals

Student Support

- Co-Site Directors and Taiwan Center faculty provide weekly advising and office hours
- Resident Director provides student weekly advising and office hours
- Internship Coordinator provides internship advisement and weekly office hours