

THE LANGUAGE FLAGSHIP

Creating Global Professionals

Hunter College
CHINESE FLAGSHIP
CENTER

The Taiwan Overseas Flagship – 2021 Spring

for Spring-Fall 2021 Cohort (January 29 – May 28)

Staffing

- Co-Site Directors oversee all aspects of the Overseas Center, including academics, internships, student life, advising, outreach, and professional development
- Resident Director is in charge of student life matters and reports to the Co-Site Directors regarding student life issues
- Internship Coordinator locates internship providers and assists students with their applications, as well as oversees the internship phase for its duration
- All full-time and part-time faculty will offer small group and one-on-one instruction supervised by Co-Site Directors

Coursework

- CHIN 40105 - Intercultural Communication in Greater China (3 credits)
- CHIN 40106 - Media in Contemporary Chinese Societies (3 credits)
- CHIN 40107 - NYMU Domain Direct Enrollment (3 credits)
- CHIN 40109 - Chinese for Professional Purposes (3 credits)

Additional Academic Work

- 5 hours of tutoring (3 hours language and 2 hours domain) per week

Internship

- The Internship Coordinator will conduct an internship survey and help students find internship opportunities that are related to their domain training
- The Internship Coordinator and teachers will assist students to prepare their application materials and practice interviews
- The Internship Coordinator will conduct an internship orientation and workshops to prepare students for the transition from the classroom to the workplace

Cultural Activities

- Once a week, students will take part in activities such as meditation, calligraphy, Tai Chi, field trips to the Mao Kong Tea House and to national museums in Taipei, cooking lessons for the Taiwanese popular breakfast (Dan4 Bing3), Taiwanese movie nights, the sharing of videos about Taiwanese daily life, lectures on Taiwanese art, history, and culture
- Students have NYMU pen pals

Student Support

- Co-Site Directors and Taiwan Center faculty are academic advisors and provide weekly advising and office hours
- Resident Director provides student weekly advising and office hours
- Internship Coordinator provides internship advisement and weekly office hours