

Chinese Flagship Overseas Capstone Program in Taiwan – Spring-Fall 2022 Cohort

KEY DATES

- Departure US: Feb 13, 2022
- Quarantine: Feb 15 - March 8, 2022
- Semester One: March 9 - July 8, 2022
- Summer Break: July 11 - Aug 10, 2022
- Semester Two: Aug 11, 2022 - Jan 6, 2023
- Departure Taiwan: On or before Jan 13, 2023
- Receive Transcripts: Aug, 2022 (Semester One) & Feb, 2023 (Semester Two)

STAFFING & STUDENT SUPPORT

- The Academic Director (AD) will handle all academic issues. AD and full-time faculty will handle advising during office hours and monthly meetings
- The Resident Coordinator (RC) will handle admissions, visas, cultural events, student life needs, physical and mental health, etc.
- The Internship Coordinator (IC) will handle all aspects of the internships
- The Student Housing Coordinator (SHC) will handle housing issues (quarantine accommodations and dormitory housing) and the host family program
- NYCU's Mental Health and Counseling Center provides counseling services in English
- The Taiwan Center and NYCU's Office of Student Affairs and Office of Student Safety will handle student safety issues on and off-campus

COURSEWORK

- First Semester: CHIN 40105 - Intercultural Communication in Greater China (3 credits)
CHIN 40106 - Media in Contemporary Chinese Societies (3 credits)
CHIN 40108 - Domain Research Independent Project in Chinese (3 credits)
CHIN 40109 - Chinese for Professional Purposes (3 credits)
- Second Semester: CHIN 49806 - In-service Internship (6 credits)
CHIN 40107 - NYCU Domain Direct Enrollment (3 credits)
CHIN 40113 - Social and Political Affairs Studies in Chinese (3 credits)

INTERNSHIP

- The Internship Coordinator (IC) will do the following to assist students in securing an internship:
- The IC and teachers will help students with application materials and practice interviews
 - The IC will conduct an internship preparation orientation and workshop
 - The IC will offer ongoing support through weekly internship meetings

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

Students will take part in various cultural activities, such as field trips to sites in Taipei, cooking lessons on Taiwanese culinary specialties, Taiwanese movie nights, the sharing of videos about Taiwanese daily life, lectures on Taiwanese art, history, and culture.